Area Guide

Sidmouth has its own golf course and you will also find other 18 hole courses close by at Honiton and Budleigh Salterton and a 9 hole course at Weston.

East Devon has many places of interest including: Dartmoor National Park, Exeter, Crealy Adventure Park- an all weather family day out, Escot Garden Park & Maze, Bickton Park & Gardens, or take a ride on the Seaton Tramway and explore the Axe Valley and Exmouth where there are numerous boat trips available during the summer months, exploring the Exe estuary and coast.

Beaches Sidmouth

The beach is formed by a large expanse of pebbles with some sand. At its western end the beach has some lovely rock pools and at the eastern, cliffs line the beach. An esplanade runs along its entire length.

Beach type: Pebbles and sand Lifeguard: There is no lifeguard facilities at this beach

Emergency Facilities: An inshore rescue service is located along the promenade. There are emergency phones at Jacobs Ladder beach and at Port Royal (eastern end of the esplanade). It is dangerous to swim out to the offshore breakwaters in certain conditions due to strong rip currents.

Cleaning: Cleaned manually on a daily basis during the summer, monthly in the winter. Dog bins are provided. Dogs are welcome all year on a small area at the east end of the beach and on the main beach from October to the end of April.

Facilities: There are toilets nearby including facilities for disabled people. Cafes, restaurants, pubs and shops are located near to the beach. A slipway provides boat access.

Activities: Swimming, sailing, fishing, jet skiing, windsurfing and surfing. Zoning enforced for motorised craft and jet skis.
